No sign may be located, erected, moved, reconstructed, extended, enlarged, converted or structurally altered without a building permit. All signs must meet the structural requirements of Chapter 122, Building Construction and Fire Prevention, of this Code. All proposed signs shall be reviewed by the Zoning Administrator and are subject to approval prior to placement, except those identified as exempt in Subsection B, Signs exempt from obtaining a permit. To promote compatible signage throughout the development, signage should be an integral part of the overall building concept.

 - (a) Window signs painted on the window or affixed to the interior of a window, provided that such sign does not occupy more than 20% of the area of the window in which it is displayed. If the sign exceeds 20% of the area of the window, it will be considered a window sign and subject to window sign requirements.
- (2) In all zones, the following signs do not require a permit:
 - (a) Bulletin boards for public, charitable or religious institutions that do not exceed eight square feet in area located on the premises.

- (b) Memorial signs. Tablets, names of buildings and dates of erection are allowed when cut into any masonry surface or when constructed of metal and affixed flat against a structure.

- (e) Temporary, nonilluminated signs, including real estate sale, model home, open house, garage sale, thrift sale, auction/estate, and noncommercial signs such as political support and community event signs are allowed without a permit. Such signs, however, shall not exceed six square feet in total area and shall not stand more than five feet above grade. In the case of a noncommercial temporary sign, the display period shall not exceed 30 days. Any temporary commercial sign must be removed within seven days following completion of the sales event. The following exceptions are allowed:
 - [1] Construction signs: 100 square feet maximum in commercial or industrial districts; 10 square feet maximum in residential districts; shall stand no longer than 60 days after construction is complete.

 - (5) Distance. All signs must advertise, promote or represent only establishments, goods or services located or sold or manufactured within 100 feet and which share the same lot as the sign that advertises them.
